

Journalists are often tasked with providing important information to their readers about key events. Their audiences demand to know all the facts surrounding these important news stories. Therefore, journalists attempt to answer all questions related to the news event. As informative writers, we should try to do the same for our topics.

Who?

What?

Where?

When?

Why?

How?