

1.) Introduction Paragraph

- Hook
- Thesis Statement
 - Main Idea
- Supporting Details (body paragraphs)

2.) Body Paragraph One

- Topic Sentence
- Example One
 - Transition Phrase
- Example Two
 - Transition Phrase
- Example Three
 - Transition Phrase
- Closing Sentence

3.) Body Paragraph Two

- Topic Sentence

- Example One
 - Transition Phrase

- Example Two
 - Transition Phrase

- Example Three
 - Transition Phrase

- Closing Sentence

4.) Body Paragraph Three

- Topic Sentence

- Example One
 - Transition Phrase

- Example Two
 - Transition Phrase

- Example Three
 - Transition Phrase

- Closing Sentence

5.) Conclusion

- Restate Thesis Statment in New Words
 - Main Idea
 - Supporting Detail 1
 - Supporting Detail 2
 - Supporting Detail 3
- Leave the Reader with something to think about

Check list

1. Does the paper have a clear main point and supporting details (same as thesis statement)?
2. Do all the body paragraphs connect to the thesis statement?
3. Does each of your body paragraphs begin with great topic sentences and end with a closing sentences?
4. Are your examples connected by transition phrases to help writing flow?
5. Does your conclusion restate the thesis statement and leave the reader with something to think about?